

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

The following is a copy of a letter sent by W. H. Vanderbilt to Gov. Cleveland immediately after the election. It embodies the sentiments of a large number of people in the United States:

New York, November 7, 1884.

Hon. Grover Cleveland—My DEAR Sir: I congratulate you and the people of the whole country upon your election to the Presidency of the United States. You owe your election, in my judgment, to the fact that the people believed you to be an honest man, and not to any particular efforts made by any faction of either the Democratic or Republican parties. Independent men, who care more for good government than for parties or individuals, have made you their choice, because they were convinced that your Administration would not be for the benefit of any political organization or favored persons, but for the interests of the whole people. This is just the result which is most desired. We have reached a time when party amounts to little. The country is above all, and wants an honest Government by honest men. The belief that we will find it in you has led to your election.

Yours Very Truly,
W. H. VANDERBILT.

A lie, to the effect that owl stuffed with sauerkraut is a favorite dish in Washington Territory, is going the rounds of the press. The expression, "drunk as a boiled owl," did not, then, originate in Washington Territory.

While Rome was yet burning, and Lucullus Pennarum, the editor of the Daily Quiritan, was employing every means to catch the early mails, Titus Quibblerius, the musical critic, arrived in hot haste. "What news from the fire?" eagerly inquired the enterprising Roman journalist; "have the Diocletian baths succumbed to the devouring flames?" "Of that I have no information," replied Titus Quibblerius, the musical critic; "but I have here a two-column criticism of the violin fantasia performed to-night by our most august Emperor Nero. I find that in the seventh andante passage of the third symphony he slurred the descending fourth note of the D in alt, allowing the instrumentation of the contrapuntal adagio to staccato with a vibrato quality into an inordinate pianissimo floriturum."

"Some there are," says the Rev. Robert Collyer, "who pray in a mercenary spirit. They expect God to turn the tide of human speculation in their favor, and so it is that a religious panic follows hard upon a financial panic, and the Fulton street prayer meeting and its fellow in London and many of the churches are filled with the cries of those who have suffered in the mad rush for wealth. There is something of blasphemy in this sort of beggary before the Throne."
